PRIZE DRAW

WIN!

THREE BROOKS B17 TITANIUM SADDLES WORTH £159.99 EACH

'You'll see plenty of Brooks saddles on audax rides,' Dan Farrell noted in his article on long-distance comfort earlier this year, in which Brooks B17 and Brooks Swift saddles were prominent as mile-eaters' favourites. In this issue, reviewing a Brooks B17 Imperial, Cass Gilbert explains the classic leather saddle's enduring appeal: 'it contours to your backside and wears in like your favourite leather boots, giving you individual comfort and your bike inimitable style.'

Thanks to Extra UK, we've got three Brooks B17 Titanium saddles to give away. This is a modern, top-of-the-line incarnation of a saddle that's been produced since 1898. Titanium rails instead of steel halve the weight of the saddle frame, so that the whole saddle weighs just 410g. But it retains the features that made the B17 so popular: neatly cut and chamfered leather, smooth burnished rivets, useful saddlebag loops, and above all a sublime level of cycling comfort that becomes perfectly tailored to you.

The Brooks B17 Titanium is available in brown, black, green or honey, and there are many other B17 saddles available with steel rails, aged leather, a narrower width, cutouts, women-specific designs, and more. And of course there are Brooks saddles for racing and commuting bikes as well as for tourers. Like the range of Brooks leather accessories, these too are available from Extra UK.

For more information about Brooks saddles, visit www.brookssaddles.com or call 0121 565 2992. For more information about Extra UK, visit www.extrauk.co.uk
