Come early to the AGM and learn about insurance, welfare, and promoting rides

AGM: added group meeting

CTC IS HOSTING a special networking event for CTC volunteers, Member Groups and affiliated clubs just before the AGM in Guisborough, North Yorkshire, on 11 May 2013. Meet up with your fellow cycling activity organisers, find out more about issues that affect your club or group, and discover some fresh ideas to inspire more people to come out on your rides.

There will be a programme of informal workshops to attend: insurance; safeguarding children and vulnerable adults; the role of the welfare officer; how to encourage new riders; and campaigning at a local level. There will also be the chance to meet CTC Councillors. Tea, coffee and lunch will be provided. The event is only open to CTC members, Member Groups and affiliated clubs. It's free, although places must be booked. Contact Sue Cherry on 01483 238302 or email sue.cherry@ctc.org.uk.

All CTC members are welcome at the AGM itself, which takes place at 2pm that afternoon. You don't need to book for that but you do need a valid CTC membership card, other proof of membership, or a completed proxy voting form from a CTC member. Details of the motions are on page 18, and there's a proxy voting form supplied with this issue of Cycle.

If you wish to attend the CTC National Dinner on the Saturday evening, tickets are £31 each and must be booked in advance. See the booking form in the Dec-Jan issue of Cycle or online: <http://ctc.org.uk/about-ctc/ctc-national-council/agm-and-awards-dinner>. For any queries about the dinner, contact Sue Cherry (details above).

Hosts Teesside CTC are running rides on the Sunday morning, open to all CTC members. There will be a 20-mile round trip to Saltburn and a longer ride through Kildale on the North York Moors. Some members will also be riding down to nearby Coxwold for the 87th annual church service. Members extending their stay are welcome to join Teesside CTC on their weekly rides. More details are available at <https://sites.google.com/site/ctcteessidegroup/>.

This issue of Cycle doesn't contain the CTC Annual Report, which is always published prior to the AGM. At the AGM held in May 2012, a special resolution was passed to amend our Articles to reflect the preference of many members to receive CTC information by email and to view documents on the website. Therefore this year, the Annual Report and Financial Statements will be available to download from the AGM section of the CTC website. Those members who have informed us that they wish to receive notices in printed hard copy will be sent copies directly.

Accommodation ranges from camping to en suite rooms

Chatsworth House is one of the destinations this year

BIRTHDAY RIDES BOOKING FAST

THIS YEAR'S CTC Birthday Rides in Staffordshire from 18-24 August are filling up fast. Half the places were taken less than two weeks after bookings opened. You can still take advantage of an early-bird discount, so long as you make your booking before 14 April. Details are on the CTC Cycling Holidays and Tours website, cyclingholidays.org.

The Rides are based at Yarnfield Park Conference Centre in Stone, with a choice of accommodation on site: camping, costing from £122 per adult; and en suite rooms, from £360 per adult. Some of the rooms have disabled facilities. Anyone organising their own accommodation can register for the Birthday Rides for £80.

There will be rides every day for all abilities, ranging into the gentle lanes around Yarnfield and further afield to the more rugged terrain of the nearby Peak District. Coach trips will go to Chatsworth House, which includes a tour, and to the museum in Stoke on Trent to view the Staffordshire Hoard, the largest find of Anglo-Saxon gold, and the Gladstone Pottery Museum.

There will be a photo competition for amateurs. The usual freewheeling and hill-climb competitions are planned, and possibly a 10-mile time trial. Evening entertainment at the centre will include a quiz, barn dance, a choir and a jazz band. There is a licensed bar on site as well.

This event is organised by CTC Cycling Holidays & Tours, which is run entirely by unpaid volunteers, with local riders providing essential help.

RideLondon needs you

CTC IS looking for volunteer marshals for the Prudential RideLondon cycling festival on 3-4 August 2013, which is expected to attract over 70,000 cyclists and many more visitors. There will be four events: Freecycle, an 8-mile ride for all abilities through the capital on closed roads; Grand Prix criterium racing; the London-Surrey 100 charity sportive; and the London-Surrey Classic, a one-day race for 150 professional cyclists

CTC is recruiting volunteer Route Safety Marshals for the Prudential London-Surrey 100 and London-Surrey Classic on 4 August. Starting in the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, the routes pass many of London's iconic landmarks before cutting through Richmond Park and out into the stunning Surrey Hills, including the testing climbs and undulating terrain of Box Hill and Leith Hill. They then return to finish on The Mall, like the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic events that they're hoping to build on in terms of raising the profile of cycling.

As a Road Safety Marshal, you'll be

Both of the London-Surrey rides will tackle Box Hill supporting the participants and will also get a chance to see pro cycling at first hand. Event details are at: prudentialridelondon.co.uk.
