Show goes on (in 2022)

Bike shows will be back. London's Cycle Show is now scheduled for 22-24 April 2022. cycleshows.co.uk

1 Ethnic Adventure Trike Hub Drive

€2,695+

New to me, Ethnic's upright tadpole trikes are for adults with mobility or balance issues. The range includes fat trikes, folding trikes, city trikes, and adventure trikes, both unpowered and electric.

5 PassPixi £5.50+
Ride with a Cycliq, GoPro or other camera and want drivers to know that? This stick-on or magnetic (£8.99) speed camera logo for your backpack or pannier is unambiguous. passpixi.com

6 Wolf Tooth 36t GRX chainring £77

The 1x version of Shimano's GRX gravel groupset, which has a 110BCD four-bolt asymmetric chainset, is usually limited to 40t or 42t chainrings. Wolf Tooth's compatible rings now go down to a pedallier 36t.

7 Shimano Linkglide cassettes £62.99+

Aimed at e-bikers but not exclusively, Linkglide brings harder-wearing, heavier cassettes to 1x11 Deore XT and 1x10 Deore. Sadly, it's not backwards compatible so you'll also need a Linkglide shifter (£33.99+) and derailleur (£49.99+). shimano.com
